l. In response to concern expressed by several senior Agency officials that Career Trainees may not be hearing enough on the subject of integrity in the Agency, the Career Trainee Development Course has been expanded. The Director of Security has agreed to lecture on 9 November. He will be followed by a panel representing the Intelligence Community Staff, the Office of Security, the Career Management Staff, and the Central Cover Staff. The speakers will discuss professional standards in the Agency and recent cases of neglect or abuse of these standards.

3. Significant activities anticipated during the coming week:

a. On 6 October 1983, a formal public hearing of the Agency's preliminary design for the new building will be held by the National Capital Planning Commission. Indications are that approval will be received, but further discussion and debate on the unresolved road improvement issue may occur. Past experience suggests that some level of media coverage will follow the meeting.

b. The six-digit secure voice dialing plan will be activated at 0900 hours on 1 October.

c. The closing date for entering FY 1983 obligations is 12 o'clock noon on 1 October. Contracts, however, must be signed not later than 12 o'clock midnight on 30 September 1983. The entire Directorate of Administration still feels we can process all of this "paper work" by noon on 1 October.
